WELCOME ~ בְּרוּכִים הַבָּאִים

The continued loss of hostages taken by Hamas is a deeply saddening and tragic events. It is a stark reminder of the cruelty and violence that exists in our world. The pain and grief experienced by the families and loved ones of the hostages is immeasurable.

In addition to this specific incident, the continued presence of antisemitism worldwide is deeply concerning. It is disheartening to witness the persistence of prejudice and hatred towards the Jewish community. This serves as a reminder that the fight against antisemitism is far from over, and that we must remain vigilant in our efforts to combat it.

In times like these, it is crucial for our Shaarey Tzedek Jewish community to stay strong and united. We must honor the legacies of those who have been lost by continuing to stand up against hatred and injustice. It is through education, dialogue, and solidarity that we can create a more inclusive and compassionate world. By preserving our traditions and values, we can inspire hope and resilience in the face of adversity. Together, let us strive for a future where every Jewish individual, regardless of their background, can live in peace and harmony.

What a whirlwind last month with Hurricane Beryl barreling at us and the destruction she left in her midst. I'm hoping the downed trees and branches don't remain part of our local landscape much longer and that the many traffic lights still out get repaired as soon as possible. I'm glad everyone in our community was safe from Beryl's wind and rain!

On a recent trip to visit my mom in Connecticut, we discovered a beautiful farm and winery less than 5 miles from her residence. Its beauty and serenity were in stark contrast to what Beryl left

The Hebrew month of Av begins on Monday August 5th. Although we are still 2 months away from Rosh Hashana, your clergy is heavily immersed in High Holy Day preparations. If you read or chanted Torah last year for Rosh Hashana and/or Yom Kippur and have not heard from me, please expect a call shortly to confirm your participation for the same aliyot for this year. If you choose not to participate again, we respect your decision, and simply want you to have the right of first refusal.

Tisha B'Av is Sunday August 11th. May it be a meaningful fast for those of us able to engage in this ritual.

And may it be a wonderful start to the new school year for the youngest members of our synagogue.

Warmly, Rabbi Deborah

The sweetness of our Shabbat
