WELCOME~ בְּרוּכִים הַבָּאִים

On behalf of our founding members, we want to express our heartfelt gratitude for your involvement and support during Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. Your active participation made these events truly special and memorable for all.

We are immensely grateful for the positivity and enthusiasm that each one of you brings to our community gatherings. Your presence and engagement creates an atmosphere filled with warmth, joy, and connections. Together, we reflected on the past year, sought forgiveness, and welcomed a fresh beginning.

As we embark on the journey of the new year, 5784, we extend our sincerest wishes for everyone's health, happiness, and prosperity. May this year be filled with abundant blessings, new opportunities, and a renewed sense of purpose. May it bring us closer as Shaarey Tzedek community and provide us with strength and resilience to overcome any challenges we may face.

Wishing you all a year filled with love, joy, and countless blessings.

Thank you Rabbi Deborah Schloss, Rabbi-Soloist David Kay and Torah Service Coordinator Sandy Remson for uplifting our High Holiday Services.

How spiritually uplifting to usher in 5784 as a Shaarey Tzedek family during our second High Holy Day season together! How wonderful to have David Kay join us as our cantorial soloist, along with his wife Jo, adding so much melodic beauty and spirit to our tefillot. How heartwarming to have so many of us come together to make our High Holy Days the special experience they were: Miriam, Sheryl, and the rest of our founding members who worked tirelessly behind the scenes to prepare and ensure the smooth running of all aspects of our time together during Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur, our ritual committee, Maura and her sister Elaine for donating Elaine's handmade High Holy Day Torah mantles from the special cloth their grandparents brought from their European home, Sol for gracing us with the chanting of Haftorah Yona and his outstanding shofar blowing, Sandy Remson for coordinating our Torah services, Danny and his brother Jaime for building us a Torah table and portable Torah stand, Anita for chanting Torah for the first time on Rosh Hashana and her grandson Max blowing shofar, Maura, Soli and Dina for making their delicious challot during this season, and each of you who are an integral part of our Conservative community in Montgomery County. Finally, how exhilarating to see the wind blow and rain fall (mashiv ha'ruach u'morid ha'geshem) just prior to our Yom Kippur mincha services. What an invigorating way to usher in the new year! It truly takes a village, and Eljay and I are blessed to be part of this dynamic and growing Jewish Conservative community that we call Shaarey Tzedek.

Celebrating our legacy ~

Maura Shapiro and her sister, Elaine Kapell's grandparents were holocaust survivors as was their father. Their grandfather was a tailor and supplied materials and fabrics to others. The suit he made for their father hangs in the Fashion Institute of Technology in New York. Their grandmother was a fabulous cook and baker. Their priority at the time was to crate up their belongings and flee Germany. They went into hiding for 3 plus years before stepping foot on U.S. soil in New York. Their grandparents were the epitome of class and fashion always dressed in the finest clothes made from the finest materials and fabrics.

The High Holy Days Torah Mantles were made By Elaine Kapell of tablecloths that were crated and saved from over 100 years ago. It gives them great pride and joy to present these to Shaarey Tzedek in honor and memory or their grandparents: Ernst Dannenbaum z'l & Betty Dannenbaum z'l Shaarey Tzedek Synagogue invites you to join us for a special event!

Ever wonder how so many Jews ended up in Texas? Come listen to Kay C. Goldman Ph.D talk about the 'Emergence of Jewish Life in Texas'

Jewish immigrants increased, and these settlers bound their future to that of other Texans, thus becoming an integral part of the emerging culture.

Conditions in Texas facilitated this transformation. Texas had a sparse population that allowed room for new settlers, Jews and non-Jews. The growing population and expanding frontiers created growth in emerging settlements. Jews arrived with the first settlers and spread throughout the entire developed territory. They established themselves in small communities – rather than only in major population areas. As these Jews demonstrated their willingness to be involved with and mix with the larger society, the society reciprocated.
