WELCOME~ בְּרוּכִים הַבָּאִים

We're filled with excitement for the wonderful start of our sisterhood! A huge thank you to Gail and Mimi for organizing such a lovely brunch and gifting us all with a sweet honey jar. The room was alive with laughter, conversations, and exciting discussions about our future plans. We can't wait to engage as the Women of Valor for our Synagogue!

We also enjoyed a beautiful Shabbat Kodesh Minyan service, with a full house! We truly appreciated the spirituality brought by Rabbi Deborah, along with the lovely melodies from Cantor Renee and all the Torah readers, including Danny, Sandy, Summer and Janessa. They filled our morning with the legacy of tradition, making our Shabbat Minyan always a special celebration.

Looking ahead, we hope to see everyone at our upcoming Havdalah on July 11 at 7:00 PM. We'll be welcoming Aviv Ben Tovim and Shir, our Houston Shlichim (Israeli community educational emissaries), who will share the rich culture and stories behind Israeli cuisine.

Don't forget, our last event in July is a Summer-themed Shabbat Dinner on Friday, July 24, at 6:30 PM. Please RSVP so we can get an accurate headcount. We can't wait to gather together!

I hope everyone is having a lovely summer and staying as cool as possible. On Saturday evening July 11th, I look forward to celebrating Havdalah together, learning about and of course eating Israeli food during a program with our newish Israeli shaliachs!

July 15th corresponds to the 1st of Av. While the month of Av is the most somber and tragic time of our Jewish year, in addition to commemorating the 9th of Av (beginning on the evening of July 22nd), 5 days later (beginning on the evening of July 28th), we also celebrate the holiday of Tu'B'Av, an upbeat holiday dedicated to love!

Even though we still have 2 ½ months before we gather for Rosh Hashana, we are already preparing so we can celebrate a meaningful High Holy Day season together. For those of you who chanted/read Torah on Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur last year, you will be hearing from me this month to see if you would like to secure the same portion(s) for this year. And if you are interested in chanting and did not do so last year, and have not already reached out to me, kindly do so ASAP at 832-978-4624.

Warmly, Rabbi Deborah
